

Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, For the past 100 years, Bricklayers & Allied Craftworkers Local 4 of South Dakota has played a major role in shaping the workforce for West River South Dakota; and,

Whereas, Bricklayers & Allied Craftworkers has actively fought to improve members quality of life—on and off the job—through access to fair wages, good benefits, retirement, safe working conditions, and solidarity among members; and,

Whereas, Their founding brothers showed you didn't need hundreds of members, as long as you have a few who believed working together will accomplish more than working alone; and,

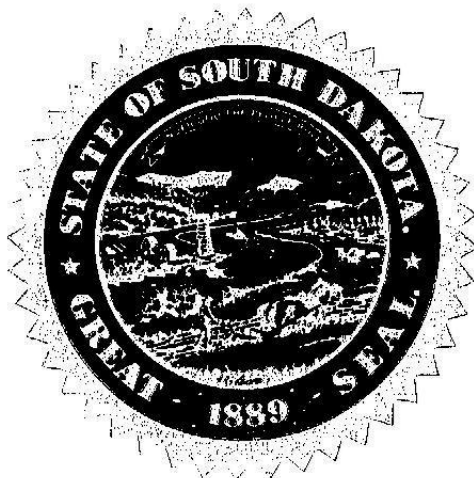

Whereas, Today, Local 4 consists of 72 members, 47 journeymen, 6 40-year members, 9 lifetime members, 2 disabled members, 1 improver, and 7 apprentices, who have kept and will continue to keep the hopes and dreams of their founding members alive and well; and,

Whereas, Local 4 is not the biggest trade union, but they are proud of their fierce independence and their commitment to the craft, allowing them to celebrate 100 years of existence:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim April 30, 2011, as

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-fifth Day of April, in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Eleven.
